

Matrix Retested

So the feeling of "not having control or choice", is because I am in the Matrix?

No! When you die, then your entire life will re-play before your eyes.

But since you have this feeling, then your are probably seconds from dying and are just seeing the re-play of your life.

Bummer...

No.. not really.

You are eternal!

Just before you die in your re-play of life, a re-re-play will start. Thereafter a re-re-re-play, etc.

But what does Agent Smith have to do with all of this?

He is the one who killed you, to start the infinite re-plays.

So this is hell?

Don't blame us! Blame the developer, who didn't test his code!
