

Why change anything at all?

The objective world (God)
gave us truth (The holy spirit)

*And it drives us, to improve our language,
so we can express ourselves more truthfully.*

*I'm not saying I am right
and I'm not saying I am wrong.
I act out my postulate as an experiment
and await the objective world to answer me.*

